DESCRIPTION	10-40% tuition savings on Drexel University's online programs	Provides education benefits to Veterans and Servicemembers who have at least two years of active duty.	For Servicemembers who served on active duty after September 10, 2001. This benefit may include tuition payment, monthly housing allowance (MHA) or a books and supplies stipend dependent upon eligibility. Eligible servicemembers may transfer all 36 months or the portion of unused Post-9/11 GI Bill(r) benefits to a spouse, one or more children, or combination of spouse and child.	Drexel University entered into an agreement with the VA to fund tuition and expenses that exceed the tuition and fee amounts payable under the Post 9/11 GI Bill®. Servicemembers may be able to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill® benefits to a family member based on service eligibility criteria.	Active duty, Reserve and National Guard personnel who take classes may be eligible for Tuition Assistance, an educational benefit that can cover up to 100% of courses taken during off duty hours. This benefit may cover college tuition as well as some expenses like enrollment, and computer fees.	Members of the Pennsylvania National Guard who are residents of Pennsylvania qualify for tuition assistance from Pennsylvania in addition to Federal Tuition Assistance	Spouses of servicemembers on active duty who can start and complete their coursework while their military sponsor is on Title 10 military orders may be eligible for up to $4,000 education benefit through the Military Spouse Career Advancement Accounts Program (MyCAA) program.
